Mutual Obligations OMVC and Members

This document is designed to give formal recognition to the mutual responsibilities of OMVC and its individual members as identified in the Policy & Procedures Manual.

It acknowledges the responsibilities of the OMVC in providing you with:

- rehearsal and performance experiences
- social events
- music for rehearsals
- uniform - a hired jacket and information on items for purchase (tie, dress trousers, casual shirts)
- transport to/from specific events as determined by the Management Committee
- transport subsidies where considered appropriate by the Management Committee
- Public liability insurance cover
- Clear communication in all relevant matters i.e. notices, rules etc.

In return it is expected that you as a member of the OMVC will:

- learn music provided for performance and return sheet music as requested
- attend as many rehearsals as possible, understanding that it is required that (other than in exceptional circumstances) the final three rehearsals must be attended prior to a performance
- wear the prescribed uniform appropriately and return the hired jacket in good order when requested
- comply with all OMVC rules and regulations
- deal with all fellow members respectfully and courteously
- comply with the reasonable directions provided by the Music Director, Management Committee and its delegates
- advise the Welfare Officer of any conditions that may require additional support

In signing this document as part of your membership requirements you acknowledge your commitment to recognise and abide by these obligations.
